

High School of the Pacific

Mission Statement

High School of the Pacific is a college preparatory school that upholds academic excellence and honorable character as worthy standards.

We promote a nurturing school environment intended to optimize each graduate's likelihood of excelling in higher education and life-long achievement.

With a well-developed awareness of today's global community, we prepare students to become ethical, visionary leaders who are agents of positive social change and ambassadors of peace between diverse cultures.

